28 April 2009

Dear Mr Wansing,

Thank you for your letter of 23 April 2009 about the meeting on May 5 regarding relevant developments in the Administrative Tribunal of the ILO (ILOAT). We write to advise that this meeting aims at an exchange of views among the legal advisers of the international organizations concerned. Thus, the participation of staff associations in this meeting is not envisaged.

Your letter also notes the possible presence of members of the Tribunal at the meeting. Those persons will serve as resources for the discussion in order to ensure that the up-to-date developments facing the Tribunal are properly understood.

I would like to express my appreciation for the contribution of your association to issues involving the administration of internal justice.

With best regards,
